Exec Summary: Deploy portable basketball shooting booths around high-traffic NBA Finals watch zones in NYC to create a live sports-meets-prediction-markets activation for Kalshi. Fans compete in timed shooting challenges for escalating rewards while learning how to trade prediction markets on live NBA outcomes.

The activation combines: Basketball challenge game, prediction market education, QR-code onboarding, social media virality, watch-party integration

Primary locations: Outside arenas in legally permitted public/private spaces, Partner with local sports bars hosting finals watch parties, plaza activations near fan traffic, rooftop or outdoor watch events

Main goal:

Drive app downloads + first trades while creating highly shareable content tied to NBA Finals excitement

Physical Setup - Basketball Shooting Stations: Cheap basketball shooting game station $200-$500 Example 1, Example 2

Visual Branding - Large side-wall graphics: “Predict the NBA Finals.”, “Trade Sports Outcomes on Kalshi.”, “Will the Knicks make Game 7?”, “Who scores 30+ tonight?”, Live Finals odds board

Staff: 2–5 brand ambassadors: Explain shooting game, Help onboard users, Walk users through first trade, Verify social post completion, Crowd engagement/hype

Shooting Challenge Structure: Get one chance per person to shoot into the inflated hoops over a certain period of time until they fail or hit the max amount of shoots allotted. IMPORTANT: MUST SIGN UP FOR KALSHI THROUGH QR CODE TO PARTICIPATE IN SHOOTING CHALLENGE

Possible rewards: Green Kalshi Branded Basketball (high score), Clothing Merch (high score), Stickers

Onboarding Incentive:

Every player gets brochure/QR for free Kalshi account.

Big Win: merch for downloading app through direct link, placing first free $10 trade (e.g., "NBA Finals winner"), then posting swing photo/video tagging @Kalshi on Insta/TikTok/FB with #KalshiNBAPredict. Drives organic shares without ad spend.

Potentially - Prediction Markets Displayed at Booths

Use easy, beginner-friendly NBA markets: “Will the Knicks win tonight?”, “Will total points exceed 220?”, “Will Brunson score 30+?”, “Will the game go to overtime?”, “Will the series reach Game 7?”

A live odds board creates urgency and curiosity.

Partner Strategy

Partner with:

- Sports bars (People under the influence more likely to participate and sign up/bet, large groups of friends/people will try to compete against each other in the shooting challenge, bringing more natural sign ups through competitive spirit.

Reach out to local sports bars and ask for a week long/1 or 2 night long collab, set up small booth in the corner of a bar.

- Rooftop venues
- Outdoor fan festivals, or open free spaces around the streets of big cities
- Hotels near playoff activity

Potential NYC target zones: Madison Square Garden area, Hudson Yards, Flatiron sports bars, Brooklyn watch parties, Midtown hotel event spaces
